

COMMENTARY FROM THE STIGMATIST AND MYSTIC, LUZ DE MARÍA DE BONILLA

REGARDING THE PREPARATION OF BLESSED GRAPES FOR TIMES OF FAMINE.

Christ tells us that a priest should be sought and asked to bless a bunch of grapes or a single grape, since with a blessed grape, two people can be fed and thus persist without food, if they have faith and are properly prepared. This will be of use for times of food shortages.

To bless other grapes:

With the grape already blessed by the priest, proceed to bless the remainder as follows:

Each grape must have a piece of stalk attached to it, and cut off from the bunch with scissors.

The remaining grapes must be blessed with the blessed grape, one by one, saying: "In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen," while rubbing the blessed grape with the one that is being blessed [one can rub each grape making the Sign of the Cross].

Then the grapes that are blessed should be stored in sterilized bottles (fill $\frac{3}{4}$ parts of the bottle with grapes) and then wine or brandy, no other liquor, should be added to each bottle. The bottle should be closed and preserved there as long as necessary, until the grapes are consumed. These grapes already blessed can be shared with your brothers and sisters, because they already carry the blessing, and in this way, others can prepare their own blessed grapes.

Fifteen years ago, Christ asked us to bless grapes, and they are still in good condition.

If grapes are not found in a particular country, you can use another fruit that is abundant and is small like grapes.
